

Maya-Express From Merida

This short journey is about the Maya culture. Learn more about the colonial times and the history of Mexico. Experience a bath in a cenote, sightseeing in Mérida, tortilla making and writing in hieroglyphs.

Day - 2 Mérida

MÉRIDA - CHICHÉN ITZÁ

Enjoy in the morning the vivid city of Mérida. In Mérida you can experience the fusion of indigenous culture and European influence from the colonial period and the time of the big landowners. The city tour takes you to the governor's palace, the oldest cathedral of Mexico and the former residence of the founder of the city, Francisco Montejo. Chichén Itzá one of the seven new world wonders, famous because of the political importance in the Mayan times as well as the impressive construction style, for instance of the pyramid Kukulcán. Refresh yourself with a bath in a cenote, one of the 2000 registered limestone caves on the Yucatan peninsula. For the Mayans those cenotes were said to be the access to the underworld.

Overnight: Mérida
