Day - 1 Yangon

YANGON ARRIVAL AND SIGHTSEEING

Upon arrival at Yangon International Airport, you are welcomed by your guide and transferred to your hotel. Once you are refreshed, take a sightseeing tour of some of Yangon's highlights, including the National Museum, which is home for many interesting artefacts from Myanmar's past. You visit the bustling Chinatown area in Yangon's downtown before you have the chance to browse for Myanmar crafts at the Bogyoke Aung San Market. Then visit the Shwedagon Pagoda, the most important religious structure in Myanmar and a point of pilgrimage for Buddhists across the globe.

Overnight: Yangon

Day - 2 Bagan

YANGON – BAGAN SIGHTSEEING (B)

Your day begins with breakfast at the hotel before you fly north to Bagan, one of the most famous archaeological sites in Asia. Your Bagan Archaeological Tour takes in famous sites including Damayazaka Pagoda, ShweGugyi and Thabyinnyu. Other highlights include the mural paintings at Gubyukgyi and Abeyadana Temple, which is famous for its mural paintings about Mahayana Buddhism. In the afternoon, your Bagan tour continues with a visit to the Shwezigone Pagoda, a prototype of later Myanmar stupas, the 13th century cave temple at Wetkyi-in-Gubyaukgyi, Ananda Pagoda, one of the most famous pagodas at the sight, and many other temples and pagodas dotted around the vast site. In the evening, enjoy the sunset from Shwesandaw Pagoda, which offers the best views across the plain.
