

Hiking In Siem Reap

Hiking through the Cambodian jungle whilst discovering famous temples such as Angkor Wat and Ta Prohm - this tour is the perfect balance between unspoilt nature and the cultural highlights of the Great Khmer Empire. On this tour you will totally immerse into the Cambodian culture by staying with locals and enjoying food in rural restaurants.

Day - 3 Kulen Homestay

SIEM REAP - KULEN MOUNTAIN (B/L/D)

Early start and breakfast at the hotel. Transfer to the start of your hiking trail that leads you through rice fields to begin with. Rising up from the flat countryside, you can see the enormous Kulen Mountain which is slowly beginning to dominate your view as the hike goes on. Kulen Mountain (Phnom Kulen) is an impressive sandstone plateau in this otherwise flat area. The mountain is considered the birthplace of the Khmer empire and a sacred place for the Khmer. At the top of Phnom Kulen, discover stone carvings in a riverbed, a large reclining Buddha from the 16th century and several hidden pagodas. After a long climb to the top, stop for lunch at a popular local hangout: the Kulen falls. Many Cambodians gather here on the weekends and national holidays to escape the heat and to enjoy some time beneath these beautiful trees. Further a field - for those who wish to hike a bit more - is a hermitage cave filled with religious artifacts... and a few bats as well! In the evening, enjoy your dinner by the riverside

Overnight: Kulen homestay
