Bangkok enchants visitors again and again through the many facets that the metropolis has to offer. Bangkok has a story to tell and is much more than a noisy metropolis where you'll arrive and depart!

- Discover the lively China Town
- · Visit of the Grand Palace most visited attraction!
- · Relax with a foot massage in the Wat Pho temple
- Day off for own exploration

Day - 1 Bangkok

ARRIVAL IN BANGKOK: WAT TRIMITR - CHINA TOWN (D)

Upon your arrival in Bangkok, check into your hotel and take some time to freshen up. In the afternoon, visit Wat Trimitr, known as the Temple of the Golden Buddha. Then proceed to the nearby China Town Heritage Centre. This small museum gives a flavor of what life was like in Chinatown in the past via photos, prints and numbers of tableaux. Enjoy a slow guided walking tour to explore Yaowarat Road and old market lanes, lined with gold shop, herb sellers, noodle stalls and a variety of restaurants. The tour ends at the awarded boutique Hotel located in the heart of China Town, the Shanghai Mansion. Enjoy a modern Chinese 3-course dinner, follow by a drink at the Shanghai Terrace Jazz lounge.

Day - 2 Bangkok

BAMGKOK: GRAND PALACE - WAT PHO (B, L)

Visit the Grand Palace in the morning. It is Bangkok's most popular attraction. This vast complex was established in 1782 and is home to a number of royal residences and throne halls as well as government offices and temple of the Emerald Buddha, Thailand's holiest temple as home to the country's most sacred image, the Emerald Buddha. Traditional Thai wellness lunch is served at Rawee Kalaya, a small boutique resort. Enjoy the beauty of the old building originally built in the late 1800's as the residence of the royal governess of His Majesty King Vajiravudh or Rama VI. Continue to Wat Pho, Bangkok's oldest and largest temple built in 16th century, located on the bank of Chaopraya River. Be amazed by the impressive largest reclining Buddha of the country, which is one of the 800 Buddha statues in the complex. The temple is also famous as school for traditional medicine and massage since 1960. Enjoy the pleasant fine details of excellent paintings, traditional pieces of decorative arts and designs. Then enjoy one hour foot reflexology massage at Thai Traditional Massage School.
