

Bulgaria I Through The Lands Of Thrace

A journey through the lands of heroes and poets, deities and rituals, mystery and traditions..., the lands of the ancient Thracian's – the first to transform grapes into wine!

Day - 6 Starosel

JREBCHEVO DAM – STAROSEL (B, D)

The walk around the town of Kazanlak in the morning tells the story of Thracian Kings and their legacy in contemporary Bulgaria. The Thracian Tomb of Kazanlak is among the first Bulgarian monuments on the UNESCO World Heritage Site list (1979). After this leap back to antiquity, the journey emerges into its most charming phase – rose oil production, not only the oldest and the most delightful industry in this country, but also very specific and almost exclusive for this region. The modern rose oil distillery in the village of Skobeleva will disclose some of the mysteries behind the most famous Bulgarian scent. Tasting of exquisite wines and an exceptional dinner will put an end to this day at Starosel Winery and Hotel.
