

Chin State I Discover "Mother Earth" Mountain

Staying together with the Sor Long community, you can experience their tradition, custom and enjoy Chin ethnic traditional dance of villagers.

Day - 2 Sor Long Village

SOR LONG: MOUNT VICTORIA (B, L, D)

Mt Khaw-Nau-Sone is part of the Chin mountain range with a height of 10500 feet above sea level and one of the highest peaks of South-east Asia. Mt Khaw Nau Sone (Nat Ma Taung, Mount Victoria) is a protected area in the Khaw Nau Sone National Park which was established in 1994. The park is an association of ASEAN Heritage Park and includes an important birding area. The park offers virgin forest, wild orchids and colourful butterflies. Start the day with a traditional Chin style breakfast at the community lodge. Afterwards, drive to the base camp, where you can get ready for your trekking adventure. This walk takes approximately four hours. A packed lunch will be taken at the top of the mountain, where you can enjoy the fresh air with a 360 degree view of the Chin hills. On your way back, enjoy the scenic drive and if time permits visit one or two Chin ethnic tribes. Here, you can encounter with Nga, Muun, Daai, Uppu and Yin Do women with different facial tattoo patterns. You can see the tattooed face woman who play flute by her nose. Your dinner will be served again at the community lodge and is traditional Chin food with Chin Khaung (traditional beer). Enjoy afterwards the cultural dancing show performed by the locals.
