Day - 9 Tbilisi

VARDZIA – TBILISI (B)

On your way back to Tbilisi, drive via the lakes Sagamo, Paravani and Tsalka. Visit Poka Monastery. The establishment of Poka Monastery is credited to St Nino of Cappadocia who is said to have brought Christianity into Georgia. Saint Nino came to Georgia through Javakheti and stood near Pharavani Lake where she had a vision of an angel who gave her a letter addressed to the pagan King. In the 11th century, a cathedral was built at this very spot. As a result of invasions in the 17th century, Javakheti, and the cathedral were destroyed, but you can still see the remains of the original stone church, including fragments of the original frescos.
