

Myanmar | Experience In Culture & Nature

Learn more about the cultural history of the country during your trip, combined with magnificent views of beautiful natural landscapes.

Day - 2 Mandalay

MANDALAY: AMARAPURA; SAGAING & AVA (B)

First, visit Mahamuni Buddha Image – one of the most sacred Buddha Images in Myanmar. Continue then to Amarapura, once an ancient capital of Myanmar, where you can observe the life of over 1000 monks at Mahagandaryon Monastery. Visit also the silk weaving factory. Afterwards, travel to Sagaing for a breathtaking view from the Sagaing Hill onto the fascinating landscapes of the Ayeyarwaddy River. Next, stop in Ava and visit the Meana Okkyang Monastery by horse carts. During this tour, you also see the Nan Myint Tower, which is 27 meter high, and the Bagan Monastery, which is well-known for its wood carving with 267 teak pillars. Finish your day with a sunset by crossing over the U Bein Bridge in Amarapura.
