Day - 12 Mawlamyine

HPA-AN – MAWLAMYINE (B)

Today, take a nice boat trip from Hpa-An to Mawlamyine on the Thanlwin river, which is one of the famous rivers of the country. On the way stop also at Kawhnat Kadow Village. Upon arrival at the jetty, take a tuktuk to U nar Oak Monastery where you see the best glass mosaic decorations and teak wood Buddha images. The monastery is donated by a Myanmar the well-known teak merchant, U Na Oak because of his patriotic battle in terms of inland water transport business against the then Irrawaddy Floatilla Company in the British times. Walk around the monastery complex, take pictures of the amazing wood-carving decorations on the inner walls of the monastic buildings. Sometimes, you even see the European pillar pedestals at some of the buildings. Back to the boat and continue sailing to Mawlamyine.
