Day - 2 Jogjakarta

PRAMBANAN – JOGJA CITYTOUR – BOROBUDUR TEMPLE (B, L, D)

Today, explore one of the important temples in Java, which shows the domination of Hindu's culture amazingly significant in the past. Located not far from down town, Prambanan, an ancient Hindu temples, built in the 9th century features three main inner shrines dedicated to the Hindu trinity: Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva. It is also listed as UNESCO Heritage Site since 1991. As you walk around, your guide explains the history and symbolism of the temples. Next, have the chance to learn more about Jogjakarta's historic and cultural traditions with a half-day city tour. Start with a visit to the Keraton Jogjakarta or the sultan palace, it is a grand complex of fine examples of Javanese architecture. Walk through this living museum and learn more about Javanese heritage and culture and then continue to Taman Sari or Water palace. This palace was built by the first Sultan of Jogjakarta especially dedicated for his harem as a bathing pool. Lunch will be served at a local restaurant. Continue then to visit the Borobudur Temple. Discover the incredible history behind the construction of this massive temple, the largest Buddhist temple in the world. The thousands of volcanic and river stone block was assembled entirely by human labour, took nearly hundreds years to complete. Visit also the nearby Mendut temple. Older than Borobudur, this pyramid-shaped temple houses three impressively carved stone statues.
