

Milan & The Italian Riviera | Beautiful Cities And Magnificent Coastal Landscapes

Immerse yourself in the life on the Italian Riviera and discover the grandiose city of Milan and Genoa. Also, explore the beautiful village of Portofino and three of the villages around Cinque Terre on your short trips through Italy.

Day - 3 Genoa

GENOA: CITYTOUR (B, L)

Stroll through the largest historic centre in Europe, discover the “caruggi” (the typical narrow streets in the old city) and the ancient shops during this day. Starting point of your CityTour is the Piazza De Ferrari, where you find the Ducal Palace, the ancient seat of the city government – now used for temporary art exhibitions; The Jesuit Church, rich baroque building hosting works by Guido Reni and Rubens. Not far away is the medieval Soprana Gate, Columbus Home and the medieval square S. Matteo, a typical example of Genoese noble quarter. Afterwards, continue the walking tour through the historic district (UNESCO heritage) of the city. Strolling through Via Garibaldi with the famous Rolli Palaces, you can visit Palazzo Rosso, the Cathedral of San Lorenzo, Museo Diocesano after a special visit and tasting at the most ancient confectioner’s shop in Italy (since 1780). For lunch, you enjoy a wine tasting with typical light lunch at an ancient wine cellar in Genoa’s Historic centre. After this special food experience, the tour continue visiting the Old Port, restored by Renzo Piano in 1992, nowadays the most touristic area in the city, with the Aquarium, the Bigo and the Citta’ dei Bambini (Children’s town) before you will see the upper town and taking an unforgettable panoramic view from the Belvedere Montalto and visit a neo-gothic style castle, Castello D’Albertis.
