

Highlights Of Armenia

Armenia is a country of ancient civilizations and prehistoric monuments. You visit Armenia and you become a part of the ancient world and touch the living history. It is impossible to know the depth of Armenia and the Armenian soul in 8 days, but we will still try to show the beauty of Armenia as much as possible.

Yerevan / Khor Virap / Areni Winery / Noravank / Goris (B/D)

Sightseeing tour to the cradle of civilization to Khor Virap Monastery, which is located very close to the Biblical Mount Ararat and border with Turkey. The importance of Khor Virap Monastery is connected with Grigor Illuminator who has been imprisoned with the church for 13years for disseminating Christianity all over Armenia. Drive to Vayots Dzor region to visit Tushpa winery. Sightseeing at Noravank Monastery (13th c.) which is surrounded by mountains covered by red stones. The beauty of the surrounding mountains one can only see with his/her own eyes, as description can never give the real beauty. Departure to Syunik region to the city of Goris. Dinner.

Overnight: Goris

Day - 4 Goris

Goris / Tatev Monastery / Khndoresk Cave Village / Goris (B/D)

In the morning after breakfast start exploration of the city of stones – Goris. Visit the cave town of Khndzoresk. Here we have the opportunity to talk through the famous line-bridge which locals use to say “dancing bridge”. At the caves you will find a lot of signs of past settlement where local dwellers used to live. Our next stop will be the monastic complex of Tatev which is considered to be one of the architectural masterpieces of 10th c. The outward appearance of the monastery is severe and laconic. Its harmonious proportions add to the impression of its considerable height. The large dome, the low and closely-spaced arrangement of narrow windows and a high and round drum crowned with a pointed 32-fold roof immediately catch the eye. Opportunity to ride up the ropeway “Wings of Tatev”. Return to Goris.

Dinner.Overnight: Goris
