Gobi Loop – Southern Mongolia

The coldest desert of the world in summer is surprisingly warm and full of life. Expect amazing wildlife, stunning nature and impressive nomadic life, blending 21st century technology with centuries old nomadic traditions. This trip covers everything the Gobi has to offer, from rocky canyons to steep cliffs, high mountains to flat plains and frozen rivers to flaming cliffs.

Day - 7 Ongii

BAYANZAG - ONGIIN KHIID (B,L,D)

Located next to a meandering river, the temple ruins of Ongii used to be a center of Mongolian Buddhism until it was destroyed in the revolutionary times. The remnants of the temple serve as a reminder of that grim past. The beauty of the surrounding nature stands in stark contrast to this site and allows the evening to focus on relaxation.
