

Gobi Loop – Southern Mongolia

The coldest desert of the world in summer is surprisingly warm and full of life. Expect amazing wildlife, stunning nature and impressive nomadic life, blending 21st century technology with centuries old nomadic traditions. This trip covers everything the Gobi has to offer, from rocky canyons to steep cliffs, high mountains to flat plains and frozen rivers to flaming cliffs.

Day - 9 Karakorum

ORKHON VALLEY - KARAKORUM (B,L,D)

Karakorum was once the capital of the Mongol Empire. Today, the site features archaeological excavations and the Buddhist temple of Erdene-Zuu. After visiting the temple, we will enter the high-quality Karakorum museum. Here we will learn about the history of what is today Mongolia, with special focus on the excavations of Karakorum and artefacts of the high period of the Mongol Empire.
