Day - 2 Mysore

BANGALORE TO MYSORE (B)

Drive to Mysore. You will be charmed by the faded grandeur of Mysore, the former capital of the much loved Wodeyars dynasty who reigned from the 16th century. A city rich in heritage, make sure you discover its royal palaces, sacred temples and majestic buildings but leave time to stroll through some of its many parks and gardens or along with a wide leafy boulevard. Evening you will be taken to Devaraj Market by Tonga (A two-wheeled cart driven by a horse). The market is one of the favourite places in India because of the beautiful fruit and vegetable stalls, friendly vendors, and the air of vibrancy and decay that makes India feel both old and new all at once.
