Day - 3 Mysore

MYSORE (B)

Start your day with a visit to Chamundi Hill for panoramic views of the city spread out below before exploring the exquisite hilltop temple dedicated to the goddess- Chamundi and dominated by a 40mhigh gopuram (tower). Make a short stop at the huge statue dedicated to Nandi, the bull of Lord Shiva, on the way down. Our next stop is the Mysore Palace. At Mysore Palace you can't fail to be impressed by this vast palace, with its turrets, domes and arches and an opulent interior with intricately carved doors and ceilings. Wander through the luxuriously furnished rooms, once home to the royal family, and admire this treasure trove of works of art from all over the world. If you are in Mysore on a Sunday or national holiday don't miss the spectacle of the palace illuminated by thousands of light bulbs. Evening enjoy High Tea at Royal terrace at the second-biggest palace of Mysore, Lalith Mahal palace.
