Day - 10 Cochin

ALLEPPEY TO COCHIN (B, D)

Drive to Cochin. Kochi is a colonial port town of Kerala whose diverse architecture acts as a reminder of the foreign traders who came over the centuries to buy spices. Portuguese, Dutch and British influences combine to bring a colonial twist to a city that is cosmopolitan and absorbing. After check-in, you go for a spice trail at Fort Kochi. A walk across Fort Kochi where you will discover the real beauty of this place and get to know why for millennia this place has attracted travellers from around the world. Hear enthralling stories about the explorers and the fascinating journeys that they undertook to reach this coastline. Perceive how trade has influenced not just the culture of this place but also local cuisine. All this and more in what is possibly one of the most interesting port towns in the East.
