Day - 1 SIEM REAP

SIEM PREAP: SMALL CIRCUIT (B)

Have an early breakfast and set off on tour that will cover a 17 sq. km area. Start off with Angkor Thom, that includes iconic attractions such as the Elephant Terraces and that of the Leper King, temple of Bayon with enigmatic faces on its towers and the Twelve Prasats. Ta Phrohng engulfed in tree roots, the 11th century Buddhist temple Banteay Kdei, Sra Sraeng the royal baths, Baphoun an 11th century Hindu temple and Spean Thma the remains of a rare stone bridge will be part of the morning's itinerary. Visit Angkor Wat after lunch. Take time to soak in the magnificent setting, the architecture and admire an intricately carved frieze thousands of feet long depicting tales from Hindu mythology. View the surroundings from the Bakan tower, the tallest in the temple. Stay to see the sunset over the temple. Overnight: Siem Reap

SIEM REAP: GRAND CIRCUIT (B, L)

Breakfast early and start tour with the red sandstone temple of Banteay Srei about 37 Km. North of Angkor. One of the oldest temples in the archaeological park, it is famed for beautifully executed decorative carvings. Traveling back to Siem Reap stop over at a typical Khmer village and observe making of palm sugar and handcrafts. Lunch with a local family who will demonstrate cooking of popular Khmer dishes. Visit the main temples of the Grand Circuit after lunch. The unrestored Preah Khan a 12th century picturesque temple, Neak Pean a tiny temple in the middle of a reservoir, East Mebon a large temple complex with impressive elephant statues at the four corners of its main terrace and Pre Rup similar in style to East Mebon, make up the collection. View the sunset from East Mebon or Pre Rup. Overnight: Siem Reap

SIEM REAP: BOAT EXCURSION (B)

Breakfast at hotel and set out for Tonle Sap 17 km from Siem Reap. On the way experience a 30 minute oxcart ride through a village. After that get on a traditional wooden boat and depart from one of the many piers by the lake to visit a floating village on South East Asia's largest freshwater lake that is also a rich inland fishing ground. Facilities in villages depend on their size. On the way back visit Les Artisans D' Angkor an arts and crafts school. Observe how handicrafts are turned out using traditional techniques. The shop here is an excellent place to look for souvenirs. Afternoon free at your own leisure. Overnight: Siem Reap
